1 The Paris of the Impressionists

We celebrate iconic paintings such as Claude Monet's Impression, soleil levant (1872) and Pierre Auguste Renoir's Dance at the Moulin de la Galette (1876) as marking the triumph of 'Impressionism' in France, one of the most recognizable and cherished of all painting styles.

2 Painting the French Countryside

Some of our most loved and famous paintings are of the beautiful French countryside. This lecture explores the paintings of Millet, Courbet, Van Gogh, Cézanne, Monet and others in the 1840-1920 period.

The Lecturer: Peter McPhee

Peter McPhee recently retired as Provost of the University of Melbourne, with particular responsibilities for the quality of teaching and learning and the campus experience. He has published widely on the history of France during the tumultuous years of the French Revolution. Professor McPhee is a Fellow of the Australian Academy of the Humanities and a Fellow of the Academy of Social Sciences. Peter has lectured to ADFAS societies over many years.
